Hi Sarah:

Thank you for the follow up email below on the upcoming meeting on April 19 at 1 pm at EPA.

On behalf of Givaudan, Rick Wroblewski and Jim Zangaro, Esq. will attend the meeting, along with Adam Arnold and me.

Are you free on Monday or Tuesday for a short call to discuss this matter? Please let me know the time slot(s) that work(s) for you.

Thank you.

Have a good weekend.

Bill,

Following up to say that attending on behalf of EPA, in addition to those mentioned below, will be Juan Fajardo, possibly Eric Wilson, and Ed Garland of HDR.

We will be meeting on the 19th floor, in room 1940, at 1 pm.

Bill,

We are holding 1 to 3 pm on July 19. Does that time work for Givaudan?

Eugenia Naranjo, Michael Sivak (Eugenia's supervisor) and I will be attending. I expect others to attend as well, and should be able to get you the full list by the end of next week.

Sarah:

Thank you for the email. We have confirmed that Givaudan is available to meet with EPA on July 19. Please secure that date with your team. Also, please advise who will be attending the meeting on behalf of the EPA team in NY.

Have a good weekend.

Bill,

I'm sorry that so much time has elapsed without word from EPA. I am thinking we should aim to meet in mid-July (if that would work for you) but still trying to get some dates on my end.

Sarah:

In follow up on the emails below, I called you today and left a voice mail message on this matter.

Several weeks have gone by but we have not heard from EPA on a meeting date.

Please call me to discuss.

Thank you,

Hi Sarah:

Hope you are well. We have not yet heard back from EPA on our prior request for a meeting and an update on EPA's schedule on this matter.

We understand that the Maxus bankruptcy and other matters (including the transition on the new administration and the reorganization of R2) have occupied your attention since Fall 2016.

Please get back to us on this request at your earliest convenience.

Regards,

Bill
